GOSPEL REFLECTION:

At his baptism Jesus was filled with the Holy Spirit. The Spirit filled Jesus with the power to be 'a light to the nations' (Isa. 49:6). Living his life in purity, truth, humility, love, faithfulness and obedience to his Father, Jesus reflected God's light into a sinful world, dispelling the darkness of sin, unbelief and ignorance: 'I have come as light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness' (John 12:46)

The Spirit filled Jesus with the power to offer his life in sacrifice for the sins of the world in order that God's 'salvation may reach to the end of the earth' (Isa. 49:6). That is why John said of Jesus: 'Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!' (John 1:29).

As God's Chosen One, faithful and obedient, Jesus 'baptises with the Holy Spirit' (John 1:33) so that the Spirit will give believers the power to be light to the world and to bring God's salvation to the ends of the earth.

We are light to the world as we live our lives in 'compassion, kindness, lowliness, meekness, and patience.' (Col. 3:12). These virtues dispel the darkness around us just as a lamp placed on a stand 'gives light to all in the house'. (Matt. 5:15).

We can live righteous and holy lives, rejecting the temptations that assail us, repenting of the sins we have committed, forbearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other' (Col. 3:13).

Jesus glorified his father: 'You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified' (Isa. 49:3). Like Jesus, we give glory to the Father by being light to the world and pursuing righteousness and peace. Ask the Spirit to fill you with power so that you may be light to the world and bring God's salvation – mercy, love, peace and forgiveness – to those around you.

Jesus, my saviour, you are the light of the world. Fill me with the power of your Spirit so that I may bring your light and salvation to the world.

To Bear Witness

Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God.

JOHN 1:34

Television cameras often zero in on athletes pounding their chests after a successful play. Less obvious are those who point their finger in the direction of a teammate who made the play possible. These are the ones who exemplify team sports at their best.

When John the Baptist points at Jesus in today's Gospel, he chooses to draw attention away from himself and toward the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. It sounds too little to say that the forerunner is giving credit where credit is due, for the very substance of John's being is to bear witness to the One who alone can save.

A couple of simple questions for reflection: Does my way of being point unambiguously to the One from whom I draw life? Is my life, fundamentally, an act of bearing witness?
